SCOPE AND CONTENT: The Turner Ashby Camp #22 of Confederate Veterans Papers contains the records of the Turner Ashby Camp #22 of Confederate Veterans of Winchester, Virginia. The records cover every facet of the group’s operations including membership applications and rolls at the local and national levels, correspondence, orders, reports, company lists, minutes, rosters, the Roll of the Dead (1893-1902), and other miscellaneous papers.

The papers also include extensive primary source material from the court-martial of Pvt. James Miller, 12th Virginia Cavalry who was executed for shooting his company commander, Captain Henderson in 1861.

BIOGRAPHICAL/HISTORICAL: The Turner Ashby Camp was organized on Oct. 5, 1891. The camp was chartered as Turner Ashby Camp #22 of the United Confederate Veterans with Charles W. McVicar as the commander. The last veteran, George W. Dellinger, died on August 29, 1943. About 300 men were members of the organization.
