

Five Little Ladybugs

Five little ladybugs on our front door,
One flew to Mom and that left four.
Four little ladybugs, oh so wee,
One flew to Dad and that left three.

Three little ladybugs saying "howdy-do,"
One flew to Brother and that left two.
Two little ladybugs snoozing in the sun,
One flew to Sister and that left one.
One little ladybug alone on the door,
It flew to me, then there were no more.
